THE ACCOMODATION:

Napmajor farm is a place outside Budapest offering group and individual retreat programs as well as aquatherapy sessions. It is surrounded by the forest, a fresh and peaceful environment ideal for resourcing and creating. Apart from nature, there is also a POOL and a SAUNA for free use. This summer, Napmajor will host our workshop as they want to promote artistic activities as part of the farm.

COST:

- collective reflection - writing, reading, video - manifesting the invisible

We are Filicaria

four students in fine arts and design, who met, while studying at ESAAA in Annecy, France. On common interest in collective experiences of creation, we are curious to discover new relationships through body and nature.
